THE INFORMATION BELOW IS EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE USE OF PLBC MEMBERS

GARDENING NEWS: It's rose pruning time again (if it ever warms up enough). About the middle of March I am planning to have a few members out to help with the job. This will start with a bit of a pruning demo and some over-all pointers on how to get the most out of our plants. If you are interested in helping out and learning how to prune roses please let me know via email and I will add you to my list. Then, when and if this darn winter ever quits, I will let you know when this will happen. It would be great if we could get five or six people to help out as it could all be done in one session.
